“ To Mr. David Lawson and family and to Ms. Dorothy Lawson and family.

You have lost much and my heart cries out but not in a sad way. My heart cries out Glory. For when Moses asked God, show me your glory Lord, he was asking to see Gods face. God said, no man can see my face and live. You have lost two wonderful children who were believers in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ; Glory. Children who loved God, you, family and others; Glory. Delon and Tammy displayed an award winning smile that expressed love, and we know that God is love; Glory. Gods plan was for your children's soul to be absent from the bodies and present with Him; Glory. In the scriptures, the last shall be first and the first shall be last, your children came after you and before you to be present with the Lord; Glory. I feel the Glory of the Lord working, and I hope you feel His Glory also. I say Glory because the almighty God, that hung the earth, the sun and the stars on nothing, has all power in His hands. It is He who has your children and they are blessed beyond all human belief; Glory. Your children have new glorified bodies and are now able to see the face of God, they can look into His eyes that are ten thousand times more brighter than the sun, and I say; Glory Hallelujah, they are safe forevermore. Be at peace, your children were the best. I know, because I am their uncle and I loved them too. Glory.

Love, Dwayne
