“ I just found out today at a CLOUT meeting that she had passed when I asked Centennial Olivet CLOUT members about Suzanne. She was a beautiful, brilliant, kind, faithful woman of God and friend of me and my husband, Gregory Grigsby, who passed in 2015. I am so sorry that I lost touch. Suzanne and I both worked together in the UofL Kidney Disease Program, in different labs, but I knew that anything I did not know how to do, Suzanne could teach me. She never complained even when she was having challenges and always knew that her life at work, at home, in the community, her whole life was in God's hands. She is still remembered and loved.

“ Suzanne's and my acquaintanceship, no friendship, goes way back to Parkland Jr. High, and later Male High. Always smiling, happy, and super smart. We would compete to be first with the right answer, in class. Then celebrate later that we both had studied. You are missed, sister and friend. - Jerry R. Ellis ('68)
