“ Hello Alex! Dominique has a new baby brother by the name of Jordan Ely Nikolas Watts. He looks a like our beloved Dominique and he is adorable. As a matter of fact I saw him last night and held him the same way I did his big brother. Dominique I am sure is watching over us all from heaven. This past Christmas was the saddest one I ever had. It was one of his favorite holidays. I miss him every day however it helps to know he is in heaven. I continue to miss him and I always will Love him. Thanks again Alex for being a true friend to my Domo. You are the best. Debbie

“ Alex thank you for taking the time to write this for Dominique and you are absolutely right it is not the same without him and it will never be. I am one of Dominique's many Aunts however he and I had a special relationship. I loved him like he was one of my grandchildren and he spent quite a bit of time at my house on many occasions. He was a beautiful spirit and always was smiling. Loved play time and LOVED to read as you already know. I could go on and on about my Dominique but I will stop for now. Again Alex please come and visit Dominique's page anytime you feel like it and encourage his other friends to do the same. When the expiration time comes for this page for entries to be left his mom can have this book and reflect back on all of the beautiful comments that people made for our Domo. R.I.P. “ It has been 3 weeks since God gave you your wings and took you home. Not a day or hour goes by that I don't think of you Dominique. Things are never going to be the same without you in our circle. This is a hard pill to swallow. Looking at this picture of you on this obituary page is not right you left too soon. It pains me every time I see Erica and the expression on her face. She looks so sad and lost without you. I hurt for her and Marlene and the rest of our family who all loved you to the fullest. Blake keeps his t-shirt with your picture on it on his pillow. That is his way of having you close to him. He wears your button with you and Erica's picture and so do I. I love you so much Domo and I will always love you. R.I.P. AUNTIE DEBBIE

Our family has been so blessed to have you with us for these 9 years and our family circle is now forever broken. “ The Cord
We are connected,
My child and I, by
An invisible cord
Not seen by the eye. It's not like the cord
That connects us 'til birth
This cord can't been seen
By any on Earth. This cord does it's work
Right from the start.
It binds us together
Attached to my heart. I know that it's there
Though no one can see
The invisible cord
From my child to me. The strength of this cord
Is hard to describe. It can't be destroyed
It can't be denied. It's stronger than any cord
Man could create
It withstands the test
Can hold any weight. And though you are gone,
Though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there
But no one can see. It pulls at my heart
I am bruised...I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline
As never before. I am thankful that God
Connects us this way
A mother and child
Death can't take it away!

“ Erica, I never had the pleasure of meeting your son but I heard about him on almost a daily basis from his Great Aunt Deborah and she was crazy about him. She spoke of the times she would keep him for you and Marlene and she always enjoyed having him. I know Blake played with him a lot as well and Deborah would speak of how well they played together. My heart goes out to you and your family. May you some how find peace in this tragedy. Sincerely, Becky (Deborah's neighbor at work)

“ You do not know me, but I knew your son. My daughter went to Mill Creek and I was the PTA President. I remember this sweet child, how could I not? He was always full of life and loved Mrs. Downing more than anything. I watched him in kindergarten and through the years until my daughter was promoted to middle school I watched him blossom. My thoughts are with your family as you endure one of the hardest parts about life and that is letting go through one's passing. I will always remember Dominique as the boy who held my hand as we went to check his vision and ears. He was a sweetheart. May every memory breathe in you for always. Gone he may be, but never forgotten.
