“ *To Mary Bradley and her Family,
I am so sorry for the loss of Doretha. I know that she will be missed and that she was a wonderful cousin to you, and wonderful member of the family to the rest of the family. May God help you to find comfort in the beautiful memories that you shared. I will be praying for you and your Family. God be with you!*

“ I remember when I was a young mother trying to work my cousin Doretha was always there to help out. I am glad I seen you a month ago and even then you gave me the prettiest smile she said Hi Robin how you doing she was always concerned about other people. I know aunt nettie and uncle Charles will be standing there beside your mom, dad, and sisters welcoming you home.
