“ One of the most genuinely expressive, caring, and nurturing women I will fondly remember and whose praises I will sing is my Aunt Doris, my father's younger sister! During our childhood, my siblings and I would travel with our parents from Dayton, Ohio to her and her husband, Uncle Charles's house in Louisville. As children, we would, of course, enjoy and relish in the company of our cousins. But Aunt Doris's bubbly, inquisitive, communicative, and warm personality always put the icing on the cake! She always demonstrated interest in our lives by engaging in robust conversation about it. Sharing her own experiences and thoughts about life were not off limits for her even though we were children and teens. She never changed as we grew older.

To you, Aunt Doris, I cherish the moments we bonded, and send you blessings for peace in your afterlife. I am certain that God continues to bless you and all of your loved ones left on this side celebrating you! Life and love are eternal!

Love Always,

Your Niece Nzinga Foluke-Henderson
