“ To Carla and Michael! I will always cherish the conversations I had with your mother Doris! We talked almost everyday before she became l'll. She became my mother when my mother died. She was there for me when my mother was l'll and my fiancé when he passed away! She was such a jolly person and could always cheer me up! I will miss her dearly!It is hard to believe she is gone! She made bunny suckers for my class and I invited her to go on the Star of Louisville field trip with my students. They wrote her letters as well! Always remember how she made an impact on many lives by doing so many wonderful things! She gave me a black after five outfit and a Halloween nun outfit! I will always love you Doris!

“ Sincere condolences to the family of Ms Doris.

She and my mother, Ann Johnson, were very good friends and church members of First Gethsemane.

I will always remember what a great hostess Ms Doris was; her dinners and parties were second to none and her house was always beautiful. I will cherish the memories of eavesdropping on her and my mother's telephone conversations, where they discussed all things church, and all the latest happenings with their friends and family, especially those from their childhood neighborhood , The Bottoms.

Michael and Carla, I pray the precious memories of your mom will sustain you during this difficult time.

*With sincerity and prayers,
Adrienne Johnson*

“ Mrs Bivens was a very nice lady. She cared for my family from the first day that we met. Carla met Dennis at Ford Motor and invited us to First G.

Ms Bivens cared for the youth at the church and would invite them over on holidays to play games, and make treats. She was very generous with her take home bags.

She also cared for the other church members. Her Christmas parties were THE BEST. She entertained and fed us well. It was funny when our time was up because she would rush us out for the next group of people. We left happy, full, and thankful for our take home bags as well.

She loved hosting her parties but her and Carla would be beat from all of the time and love that they put into preparing for the parties. I'll all ways cherish those moments. Mostly I will not forget how she allowed my children to stay over when we had to go back to Ohio.

She took them to school and picked them up.

She loved our family and we loved her too.

She will be missed. ❤️ ☐
