“ They don't make them like her anymore. True "Mother of the Church." Didn't care if she hurt your feelings, she loved everyone enough to let them know when they were out of order. I was one, and am better for it. My husband and I were invited to a Christmas dinner at the home of one of the members of FVAMBC. My husband had dropped something on the floor. I was like he can pick it up. I got a good talking to by Mother Johnson. She explained to me my responsibilities as his wife and as the wife of a minister. Needless to say, I cleaned up the mess. Just one of the things taught to me by Mother Johnson. I can go on and on about how much she has encouraged me over the years. Her style was very inspirational. I will always treasure our relationship. This is hard. To the family, We cannot begin to feel your loss because it is well beyond ours. God bless you all. You are in our prayers.

“ It's true Mrs Johnson wore many hats in life but the one she wore so graciously was her strong faith, that no matter what life threw at her she stood on her faith. She will be greatly missed. She was a lady of elegance. My condolences to her family.
