“ To Priscilla, Martin, Greg and family, Aunt Dot is with all of her sisters and brothers now and I can only imagine the laughter and fun they are having. These are the family memories I will hold dear in my heart. While we shed tears of her passing, remember the many years of love and joy she shared with each one of us. I know that Aunt Dot is OK. Love you all.

“ Playing games "penny" Pokeno at holiday time and hearing her laughter when she won multiple pots with her favorite cards. I love you and will miss you, the last link to this generation of our family. Thanks for showing us the way. Your niece, Deborah
