“ Doris I only knew you for about 7 or 8 years but I felt like I had known you all my life, you were a great coworker and friend, you always saw the good in people and ready and willing to pray at any giving moment. God new he had a great angel in you when he placed on this earth to do his great work, now you are getting your great reward for that work. I love you Doris and your great big smile will always be in my heart. prayers to all her family and freinds, I am sorry for your great loss, just remember she's in heaven and now she's smiling and no pain and will be watching over you. She loved her family so much she talked of you all with love. Cindy Hester.
