“ Our deepest condolences on the loss of our cousin Dwayne “Wat” Watkins Sr.

May my family’s hearts be filled with the wonderful memories of joyful times we spent together when we lived in Louisville. We have so many wonderful memories. My Mother, Mildred Morris loved Wat so much & often talked about the conversations they use to have. Dwayne & Revelle are also the Godparents to our daughter, Iman. Dwayne was so proud to be her Godfather, & Iman loved him so much.

To my loving family, please know that you are in our thoughts & prayers. We love you all always & forever.

“ Dwayne was my Cousin as well as Ricky, Raydonna and the entire clan, that was discovered late in his life. We disagreed on matters of the world and archive events, He was a Good guy with a crazy sense of humor. He will be missed, I will always treasure the gripe sessions that he, I and Bill Price had at the Radio Station. Prayers go out to the family, Bless you all.

“ *The Last Mile Of The Way
If I walk in the pathway of duty,
If I work till the close of the day,
I shall see the great King in His beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.
When I've gone the last mile of the way,
I will rest at the close of the day;
And I know there are joys that await me,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.*

*If for Christ I proclaim the glad story,
If I seek for His sheep gone astray,
I am sure He will show me His glory,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.
Here the dearest of ties we must sever,
Tears of sorrow are seen every day;
But no sickness, no sighing forever,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.
And if here I have earnestly striven,
And have tried all His will to obey,
'Twill enhance all the rapture of heaven,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.*
