“ I am distraught and puzzled that Reverend Shields was taken from WCSBC. He made several important improvements in his short time, and although he left us outlines to follow, I believe we still need his leadership to carry them through. He was just beginning. WE were just beginning with him. I feel for his wife and family - still needing him.

One memory of him is, while eulogizing my brother, Deacon Dewain, he humorously described how he would give him a hardy soul-brother handshake, complete with snap back and shoulder bump! Reverend Shields needed this handshake as an assurance that someone appreciated and understood his delivery of the Word ... and we still need him as assurance that we will keep moving forward. But we know that God has him...and us.

Sending prayers to the family from New Faith Missionary Baptist Church, Chicago Il, 60484. Reverend Shields visited our church and was good friends with Pastor Randolph. We pray that God strengthens the family and church for the days, weeks, years ahead. Keep your hands in God's hand, he will never leave or forsake you. 🙏🙏🙏
