“ I have so many special memories of my cousin Earl, it's hard to say just one. He was always there when ever I needed him. We were more like brother and sister instead of cousins. I guess the memory that stands out the most was, when we were teenagers and this guy tried to take advantage of me. I didn't know his name just the kind of car he drove. The next morning he knew his name, and were he lived. Earl scared this guy so bad he joined the army to get away lol. I will miss him so much. Rest in peace Earl I love you so much.
