“ Geez: just learned today of Earl's passing - thought of Earl & Earl Etta often especially after my Scottie passed away. My condolences for sure - we had lots of good times in Lexington bowling together, riding around at Christmas time looking out the lights in the neighborhoods. I miss you Earl Etta.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Watson family. I want to express my sincere heartfelt sympathies for the loss of a good soldier. he was a man who inspired many of us by his genuine care, and understanding. He was a devoted Christian, husband, father, and my "true friend". "It is not how long a man lives, but how deep that life is" May his soul rest in eternal peace! My sincere condolence.
