“ *Sis. Clara and family: My heart is sadden at the homegoing of my "Buddy" as I affectionately called him and he called me. It was my pleasure to serve under his leadership while he served as President of the Ushers. It was during that time we became buddies. I always looked forward to him coming in on Sunday mornings reaching in his coat or jacket pocket pulling out a couple of tootsie rolls saying here "Buddy" how you doing and he always thanked me for being available to usher whenever he called upon me. I will miss him dearly and will continue to keep you Sis. Clara in my prayers.
Much Love Aleatha*
