“ (I posted much of this on my Facebook site) I mourn the passing of Edward Newton. I was honored to work along side Ed at Shawnee High School for over 20 years, 13 of those years as a counselor. I learned from the best. Being a high school counselor along side Mr Newton was better a thousand graduate hours of classes! Mr. Newton was a great counselor, whose intelligence was displayed in a practical and always students centered manner. I watched him give his leather jacket to a student who had none; saw him give a student a chewing out and then put his arm around him and tell him he can be better; watched him hug parents of a student killed in a drive by. The stories go on and on. Ed Newton believed every graduating senior had to prove to him that they were going to college, technical training, a job or the military. They had no choice. He was always dressed to the nines, even wearing his Stacy Adam's shoes with his track suit-because they were comfortable! I will miss him. Just knowing he was still there was comfort. God bless his family.

“ I had the privilege of teaching with Coach Newton at Louisville Male High School. He mentored many young men and women giving them the confidence needed not only to succeed on the track but in life. Remember his legacy which will live through the lives of those he inspired.

“ Mr .Newton will dearly be missed Mr. Newton was at Ballard high school in 1982 I had much respect for Mr. Newton I was a freshman I try out for Ballard’s baseball team I was cut by the coach. Mr. Newton came to me and said I watch you out there on the field and you was better ball player then any of them guys. There no way you should have been cut he started a petition and had over 100 people sign it I respect that man so much. May God be with his wife and kids. A hero in my eyes love you Mr. Newton
