

Elaine Coleman (Downtown)

April 5, 1953 - September 18, 2023

Elaine Coleman On September 18th 2023 Elaine Coleman passed away with her beloved husband Cullin Coleman Jr. by her side. Elaine is survived by her husband Cullin Coleman Jr. Two children; Latonya Young and Cullin Coleman III. Six grandchildren; Quennel Young, Anson Young, Aliyah Young, Cullin Coleman IV, Kuliah and Sarah Coleman. Five great grandchildren; Lani, Miles, Adonis, Emery and Genevieve. Two brothers, Johnny Sewell and Freddie Smith. As well as a host of nieces and nephews. Elaine is preceded in death by her mother Katie L Smith (Buchanan), her father Bill (William) Smith and 3 sisters.

Elaine worked as a phlebotomist for the Red Cross for over 20 years. She had a passion for helping others. It was that passion that lead to her career with the Red Cross.

Elaine was a wonderful mother and grandmother who was entrusted with secrets that never escaped her lips. She made time to share recipes and cook with her daughter.

Not only was Elaine an amazing wife, mother, grandmother and Gigi, Elaine was an incredible friend. She chose her friends wisely and held them all close to her heart. Elaine and Annette Bishops friendship (sisterhood) spanned over 51 years. The two were more like sisters than friends.

Elaine married Cullin Coleman in 1973. She was a beautiful bride and he was and shall always be grateful for her love and devotion. The happily married couple shared many meaningful moments that will last Cullin a lifetime.

Most will remember Elaine's boisterous laugh and the way that only she could tell a story. The way she walked into a room and owned it. Those who really knew her will remember that she was feisty, fierce, loving, funny and so very strong. Elaine made an incredible impact on so many lives. She will forever be remembered fondly and missed dearly.

“ I met Ms. Elaine at Psc..we became instant friends , we talked about everything , especially food ...even when I left the state, we kept in touch , she was differently a very special lady .. I was down in Kentucky this past June and I really wanted to see her but she said she was not feeling well, now I wished I would have seen her one last time ... I am truly heartbroken 💔 ... my prayers go out to her family...I will miss her 😭
