“ Mother Elizabeth Davis was the kindest, sweetest, and gentlest person I knew. Even when she corrected you, she did it in such a graceful way that you couldn't even be mad. I will always cherish how when I visited NY, she made time to see me and when she visited Louisville she also made time to see me. Women like her only come once in a lifetime. She will be greatly missed.

I was so saddened to learn of the passing of Mother Davis. I have so many fond memories of riding the A train home with my mother, Mother Stafford, my sister Evangeline Washington, and Mother Davis. Over 40 years of fond memories. What a wonderful friend she was to my mother. She had such a sweet genuine spirit and was filled with Godly wisdom. Sleep in Peace Mother Davis!

“ Mother Davis was truly a very gracious, beautiful, Apostolic, warm, praying Church mother. The youth loved her. Many years ago she visited my Brooklyn work location and prayed over my work area. When my coworkers heard her they asked for prayer. She also counsel me during the legal adoption of my daughter, who also fell in love with her. She was an example of a Holy woman. She would always say Glorified the God that's in the preacher not the man. She was a church mother full of wisdom.

Sister Hooper - July 19, 2018 at 11:43 PM

Mother Davis was one of the few people who remembered my mother, Sister Emma Brown. One day, as I worked at various services and on committees, she said my mother would be very proud of me. Even as I write this it brings tears to my eyes. I will cherish her memory always.
