“Daddy, I am heartbroken and just can't believe it's true. As I reflect, you've been trying to prepare me with all our conversations. I find comfort that I know without a doubt, you knew how much I loved you and how proud to call you daddy. I can't wait to see you again, I find comfort that you are with your HEAVENLY FATHER and the gang. "CUT UP BABY" I LOVE YOU, ALWAYS IN MY HEART. Love Tiffany

What's up man, sorry for coming to you under these circumstances and regrettably not getting to know the man. Just discovered your real name (Elliott), this morning when thumbing thru the obituary. You know there's power in a name and that's why I make it a habit to call everyone by their full 1st name. I know u can't physically hear me but your spirit does and to all the love ones you leave behind they will. The short time I knew you man there were some bitter moments because I selfishly and mistakenly allowed a body to change my behavior. May the Lord forgive! To your closest family members: Sharita, Tiffany & Cyle of whom I've had the pleasure to be in their present are all great kids the Lord allowed you to help arrange. Elliott, to all other family members and friends I'm saddened and jealous at the same time because you beat me to the Cross of Calvary. RIP my Brother and maybe one day I can rewrite the script. My sincere condolences to the entire Irvin family.
