“ I know that I only got to know you for a short time, but I have been around enough to know when God has placed an Angel in the midst. It will be hard for your family at first, but I promise it will get better. You left a legacy at even such a young age. Anyone who came in contact with you had to see how contagious your spirit was. We can only hope to be as confident as you were at some point in our lives. Keep shining sweetheart like you always. Bass you know if you guys need anything, you have a team assembled to be right there. You are not alone!

“ My daughter, Hannelore, and Emily were in fourth grade together. Emily was such a sweetheart---she brought kindness to the classroom. I am so incredibly sad to know that she has died. Please accept my love and my most sincere condolences. I will treasure the lovely memories I have of seeing and experiencing Emily's beautiful presence in the classroom.

“ I will always remember Miss Emily for her sassy, go-getter attitude. She knew what she wanted from life and wasn't afraid to do what was necessary to get it. She was a hard worker, but more importantly, she was kind and aware of others needs. I treasure every moment I got to spend with her.

“ I remember caring for Emma's natural hair about 5-6 years ago. Such a beautiful child with the prettiest hair, smile and spirit. She was definitely an inspiration for so many inside and out. I was definitely looking forward to seeing her this week for her hair appointment. I'd like to thank her for strength and courage. Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel and she'll truly be missed!

“ For those who knew you Emily, our life perspectives were changed because of your zesty determination to meet the multitude of challenges you faced with undying positivity. Your spirit was beyond the random acts of kindness some of us earthlings try to do to make this world a better place. My world has forever been changed because of you and your family.
