“ I love you and I always will even though we didn't see each other often. I knew you would be there whenever we needed. You saw me and Brittany as your daughters until the end and I didn't show you enough how grateful I was for that. I'm sorry for that. Hearing the news that you were gone hit hard and broke my heart because I would've never imagined I be writing these words anytime soon. Rest peacefully Big Eric 🕊️
