“ Sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Ervin Edward Denkins, III and especially his sister Anita in this most precious time of reflection and memory. God's promises are outlined for us in the Holy Scriptures. We must cling to those words for encouragement and peace during this moment of transition from this life to the next.

May the peace of God be with you Anita and John in this moment bereavement.

Sincerely,
Bryant M. Lowery

“ So sorry to hear about Bro. Ervin's passing. His teaching was a wonderful influence to me during my days at KBC. I am sure he had more knowledge stored in his head than anyone else I have known. I know he is at home with his Lord and more comfortable than he has been in a long time. I pray the Lord will bless you with the same comfort.

“ Ervin, where do I begin? I have literally been on your heels since birth. Born eleven months apart, I followed you to grade school, junior high, high school and college. We had some of the same teachers. More times than I can remember, I was "Ervin Denkins' sister" instead of Dorothy. Now, that is so precious to me. You and I even shared an apartment off campus for a semester. We have shared many conversations, laughs, tears and fun just being in each other's presence. Ervin... this is so difficult. Rest and wait for your blessed reward. I'll be listening to you on some old cassette tapes that I have kept. I love and miss you dearly. See you after while. DJ

“ I will forever cherish our times growing up as children and becoming adults. I will ALWAYS remember two things: your piggyback rides from kindergarten home and "Say Master you are the greatest." Well, you were the greatest brother and protector. You suffered so long, but it's over now and the Lord has given you sweet rest. I'll always love you and we'll see you in the sweet bye and bye.
