“Erv and i shared a love of boxing, and would talk about it nonstop at Sparks when he worked the door and i was the bouncer. A fast friend with an easy demeanor, he taught me all about how city government actually works. Along with other valuable mentoring. Peace to your family, Erv. Rest well.”

“The Tinsley family's thoughts and prayers to our dear friend Ervin Sellers' family. I was unable to attend the homegoing services due to travel restraints. I consider Erv a friend & brother who always had a great story & love for you each time we communicated. I enjoyed working closely with Ervin during my coaching days with Wade Houston & Louisville Male High Basketball. Erv was our scorekeeper & protector when needed. Lots of laughs, love & fun during those 3 years. We are missing those Saturday mornings calls to revisit the weeks. He was a loyal friend who loved his family & friends. God bless the family. His legacy will live on with each of us who knew him well.”

“ I met Ervin in my college days when I worked at Sparks Lounge on Main Street in the 90's. He worked a few shifts a week as our security guard. Erv had the best laugh, the best smile, and always the best stories. BIG Love to his family and many friends who considered him family. ❤️

“Erv was the poster guy for the concept of friend. He was the ride or die friend to his buddies. Always ready to attend an HBCU homecoming, especially his beloved Tennessee State. Or just a trip to hang out with out of town friends. His devotion to friends was unshakeable. He was the one who would always check on our brother, Woody’s widow every morning after Woody’s transition. He wasn’t just your friend. He was your families friend. His greetings were always with a smile or humorous. Erv could be a cut up and a wonderful story teller who have you laughing until tears rolled from your eyes. Erv was the friend you were always happy to see because you knew he was bringing sunshine your way. Even in his challenging profession as a child support detective, and later supervisor, he may have had to be tough, but he was always breaking down walls and counseling about a wayward parent taking responsibility for children’s welfare. To say that he will be missed is an understatement. We will call his name fondly for the rest of our lives.”
