“ To the family of Gene Camp, I would like to express my sympathy and comfort. Gene gave me and my two sisters nick names when we were children and today we are still called those nick names. He has taken life journey's down the highway, to gain his wings like sunshine through the clouds on a rainy day. Lois Johnson Whitlow

“ To the Family: May the Lord strengthen you in the days ahead. I mourn the loss of my dear cousin with you but God mourned it more. He's done his job down here on earth and God has now called for him to come for the job He will do in Heaven. Don't let his loss separate you from the love of God or each other.
