“ Aunt Eva was a very Kind-Hearted and Lovely Lady! I enjoyed sitting down with a cup of coffee and listen to her positive - beautiful approach to life. I always looked forward to attending Church with her and hear how knowledgeable she was about the Bible. I certainly will miss her!

“ John and I send our heartfelt sympathies. We will always cherish the social and musical moments that we enjoyed with Eva. We remember the times we met at 5th Street Baptist Church to work on music together for our choirs. We will always remember and reflect on the memories you left with us. Thanks for the memories. “ Mrs. Barney James was a beautiful person and she loved playing for the Sanctuary Choir. One time she asked me to sing a solo. "Ms. Barney, you might not like that" I told her. She waved me off and insisted that I sounded good in rehearsal, but I looked at her dubiously and choir rehearsal continued. On that Sunday morning she played the song and I started to sing. The look of horror on her face was so funny I had to do all I could to not burst out laughing, but I am sure the look on my face told her "I told you so". It was so bad that she finally took her hands off the organ and stopped playing. And she never EVER ask me to sing another solo again!

She was my girl, and she will be missed! Heaven has surely gained another angel.
