“ Ms. Eva was such a Classy looking woman and I always admired how she kept her hair neatly cut. I was referred to her in the "80's" by Anita Willis, my church member who is now deceased. I would comment to Anita how I liked her hair cut and she told me about Ms. Eva. I start going to her for awhile until my daughter became a beautician but I'd always enjoy the comfort of her downstairs shop at her house and conversating with her. Very nice and pleasant spirit. Prayers are with the family...Ruth Nelson “ Ms Eva gave me my first haircut when I decided to go bald. We laughed about how much money I had wasted trying to save the few strands I had left. Ms Eva was one of a kind and I will miss her. Deloris Richardson 37th street neighbor.

Children, how I know how you much feel. Remember, the many life's your mother has touch. She had so much talent, wisdom and encouragement, when you needed her ears she was there to hear. She has came to the house has well as others to cut hair if we where unable to come to her. A sweetheart, and a mama's girl she was!
Chan, I will be back! I got to go feed mama, a devoted daughter she was to her mother. It just passed on down to being the mother she was to Y'all. Just like they say when our own Pastor can't preach or out on another assignment, "she didn't leave you without a mother, What a Friend we have I Jesus. One day at a Time: Marcus, Darrell, Cedric, Damon, T'andrea. The community is praying for you family. The
