

Evangelist Mikki Walton

Evangelist Mikki Walton, 64, of Louisville, KY proceed to glory on Tuesday, January 6, 2020. She was born in Selma, AL to Willie Hogan and Mary Walton who preceded her in death.

Mikki was an evangelist and legend in the Louisville gospel scene. Known as a passionate speaker, dynamic performer, and skilled manager, she was recognized by the City of Louisville as a Distinguished Citizen in both 1999 and 2003 for her contributions to the city both musically, and as a black female entrepreneur. As owner of the EMW Executive Consignment Clothing Store for over 3 decades in the heart of downtown Louisville, she often would give professional clothes to women from homeless shelters, domestic abuse survivors, and just about anybody who couldn't afford it so they would feel empowered enough to go on job interviews, work in office environments, or just to be able to attend church and look nice. May 17, 1998 was designated by the City of Louisville as Mikki Walton Day.

She is survived by sister-in-law's Barbara Walton of Lima, OH and Rosetta Walton of Louisville, KY; sister LaNorah Jordan (Gregory) of Louisville, KY; nieces Octavia Thompson of Atlanta, GA; nieces Pamela Walton, Phyllis Walton, Penny Walton, Tonya Walton, and Michelle Walton all of Louisville, KY; nephews David L. Walton, II of Columbus, OH and Cedric Walton; a special niece, Brittney (Jay) Walton-Mitchell of Selma, AL; four special cousins: Sammy Walton and Nathaniel (Vickie) Walton both of Lima, OH and Aaron (Lakisha) Walton of Columbus, OH, and Adele (Willie) Stallworth of Chicago, IL; and many friends, including Missionary Dee Still.

She is preceded in death by a sister Clemmie Walton, and brothers Eddie Walton and David Walton.

Visitation is Saturday, January 18, 2020 from 10 am - 12 noon, at King Solomon Missionary Baptist Church (1620 Anderson St., Louisville, KY) with the funeral service to follow immediately at 12 noon. Interment will be at Louisville Cemetery.

“ My first memory of Ms.Mikki was seeing her many years ago when she was was working at the Kentucky movie theater in the box office selling the movie tickets on 4th street way back in the late 70's and 80'swhen I was a pre-teen and teenager and I remembered her really long beautiful nails and her pleasant precense. I met her later on in the late 90's as a adult when she had her consignment shop which was on 3rd street below the apartment's called the Weissinger that I lived in at the time and from there I kept up with her from that point on until we lost touch in mid 2000's. Mikki was such a beautiful and loving lovely kind lady both inside and out with a beautiful God filled spirit and soul and a eye for beautiful things. Heavenly father placed her in my life at just the right time later in my adult life and she shared a message with me from God I will remember always that was much needed at the time as well as blessing my business I owned at the time by walking through and praying over it, I will never forget it. It's now 2025 and I am just now finding out of her passing God just put her on my heart and I was looking her up to see if I could find her and was led to her obituary sadly but I know she is with the Heavenly Father now and with that I find peace and joy that she is resting is His arms. Rest in eternal peace Mikki you will be missed and never forgotten. 🌸🌸🌸

“ Ms. Mikki!! one of the kindest most generous souls i ever met. My son and i would give her rides. almost on a daily basis. Once we met her we never wanted to miss the chance to hang out with her. I met her at the beginning of my cancer journey. She always prayed for me and called me her Angel. She always knew our names. One time she gave a gift to my son just because she knew he was having a hard time with his mommy having cancer. We had not seen her in a while and mentioned how we missed her. We just though life was busy with Radiation and appointments and COVID , that we just happened to miss her walking from the lady she took care of to the bus stop. We recently moved. Today i was unpacking our office and found her business card. I one day promised to call her. So i was going to do that today. I decided to google her name.. and was saddened to see this news. But OH SO GRATEFUL that God allowed us to meet her. Have fun singing with our Maker Ms. Mikki! You have expanded His kingdom and impacted lives for sure!!

“Wow. I am shocked. Very shocked. I used to often go in her store in downtown Louisville, when I lived there in the 90's; it was a consignment shop I think, I recall one location and then she moved to another location. Evangelist Mikki was always soooo very caring, kind, nice, loving, and an ear to just listen to me. This earth lost you, but I am confident that heaven gained you. Will pray for the family... in Jesus name. Amen.

“I first noticed her store on 1st Street when I worked across the street at Thorntons. I would see the many different styles of clothes until one day I walked in! I fell in love with her and her clothes! I ended up buying more than I went to buy! I brought All my formals and she talked me into buying a white full length mink coat! I could talk to her about anything and took her advice! I will miss our conversations and her beautiful smile! Rest easy my dear friend, you have received your reward!!

“ I shall always remember the support she gave to gospel groups especially when she always supported Olivia Chandler & Unity Choir over the years. She always had a kind word & tried to support everyone's ministry. She will definitely be missed but we know that she is rejoicing with her Lord!!

“ There are not many people in this life journey that you can clearly remember almost every detail related to the day you met them. MIKKI, WAS TRULY THE EXCEPTION. I remember everything about that day in July 1991. I remember almost everything about every encounter with Mikki, because she was 'UNFORGETABLE" visually, verbally, personally and spiritually. Mikki gave you 100% of herself and it was almost impossible, when she asked me for something, to give her less in return. I'll miss you...until we meet again.

“ INTERIM HEATHCARE REMEMBERS - The Franchise is no longer operating in Louisville. The owner resides out of state. When he was informed by e-mail, this was his response. "Of Course I remember Mikki! She & Ann (his wife) competed as to who would be the classiest dressed lady @ Interim. But more important she had integrity and dependability. Surely the Lord has found a special place for her.
