“ I am so sorry for your loss, Reggie. Know that your beloved Marine has left this life to take up his new post in Heaven's Detachment. For, as the third stanza of the Marines Hymn states ... "If the Army and the Navy ever look on Heaven's Scenes, they will find the streets are guarded by United States Marines. "

Those gentlemen were awesome. With uncommon grace and dignity, We know they suffered much along the way, but served with uncommon grace, dignity and unfailing loyalty. They paved the way for other minorities and set the bar high for all of us who followed and making the Corps what it is today.
