“ A great man. I am a better man, more wiser, and have had my eyes open wider because of Franklin, "Coach Foreman". Wise, kind, and most importantly, fair. He was a character to model after, a man that seemed 15 years younger than he was with the way he carried himself and the energy he shared. Maybe we will see each other again

“ Frank was one of the most loved and respected members of our DMHS Class of "66". He was a good man and always a gentleman. So many of us were looking forward to seeing Frank again at our 50TH Class Reunion this year. He will truly be missed. My prayers and deepest sympathies go out to all of Frank's family and loved ones.

“ Our classmates from Manual have exchanged numerous messages in the last day or so expressing our sadness over the loss of Frank - but more expressing of our good fortune at having known him. His Manual yearbook ambition was "To leave my footprints in the sands of time". For us, he certainly did that.
