“ My father is the love of my life. He has meant so much to me every since I have had breath. This man not only help give me life, He taught me my world and how to live in it. To have a real Man in your everyday life that leads you in every right direction, that teaches you life and their best experiences, that talks to you with a smile in their voice everyday, that guides you, protects, you, provide for you, encourage your ideas, that has the greatest advice, teaches you how to be loved and love at the same time, that actually know the meaning of your name and being, and will make you extremely happy just by his presence, is UNBELIEVABLE AMAZING. To have that unconditional love is a BLESSING. My DADDY being My DADDY is the best feeling in the world. There is not anything I would change about him. There will not never be another day the same without him. Everyday I feel like he left me. But I know my father always takes me anywhere he goes, so I would patiently wait. Thank you LORD for bringing a WONDERFUL MAN to flesh to show me life! Tell him we said will will done, in JESUS name AMAN.
