“ Perdilia My heart hurts for you and your family. No one knows the pain of losing a family member like I do. I know how close you and Freddy were and that's why it hurts me so much knowing the pain you are going through. He's in a better place now, not having to worry about the trials and tribulations he went through. I will be there for you just as you and Fred were when my father died. If I can do anything for you or the rest of your family, please do not hesitate to let me know. My phone# and address are still the same. Take care my friend and I will see you tomorrow.
