“ Family and Friends of Gary Cole Jr.:

We wish to offer our deepest condolences to you.

On December 14, 2018, a group of us from Louisville Arms of Compassion gathered at Jefferson Square Park, on 6th and Jefferson, to acknowledge and honor the life of your loved one, Gary.

In this tragic and sorrowful time, we stand in solidarity with you.

We believe when one person is harmed or taken from us, we are all diminished. And we hope that by bringing our arms of compassion together, we can create a culture of nonviolence in our community, city and the world.

We extend to you our arms-of-love during this time of suffering.
