“ Miss Geneva will really be missed. She and my mother (Martina Ross), attended Kentucky State College together. After marriage, She, Mr. Perkins and my parents enjoyed going to many parties and dances together. It was so much fun watching them get all dressed up and going out. They seemed to always have a great time. Later in life, Miss Geneva became like another Mother to me, as I left my church and joined first Virginia Ave. She and my mother in law, (Lelia Johnson), were also good friends and attended the same Sunday School class. She also knew my husband, (Don Johnson), most of his life. She and Mr. Perkins were very helpful to in the early years of our marriage. Our son, (Don, Jr.), fondly remembers her as a lady who helped him on the Usher Board. Sandy and Brother, You and your families will remain in our prayers. There is a new angel in Heaven.
