“ Something I was doing reminded me of George, so I googled him to see what I could find. It is so sad we lost him so early. He and I were great friends for two years at UK, but lost touch. There was never a dull moment when we hung out. Imagine him, at his size, sneezing exactly like Donald Duck. Or wearing one of my red socks with one of his green, and telling everyone he had another pair just like them in his room. We both were in Holmes Hall as freshmen, and the 21st floor of Kirwan Tower as sophomores. He in 2105, I in 2112. The stories just go on and on. He will forever be 19 to me. I thought telling a few things from his early years might be worthwhile. My deepest sympathy to you all.

“ Dear Sis. Cordery & Family,

I was at first shocked and then deeply saddened to hear of Bro. Cordery's passing. Whenever I came in town to visit my parents, he always offered a kind word and warm smile. I recall how at the breakfast fellowship following New Year's Eve Watch Night Service he was sitting at the beverage table serving (as usual) and making sure that everyone knew that the brown beverage was apple cider and not tea--it was like he didn't want them to be surprised:-) I always observed him to be a man who cared about other people's feelings and wanted them to have the best experience possible. I know if I was blessed just to be in his midst for the brief times that I was, then you all have been tremendously blessed to have had him in your lives in such a special way for so long.

I relate to your sorrow and so can offer this assurance: EARTH HAS NO SORROW THAT HEAVEN CANNOT HEAL! By and by we'll see our loved ones again. Bro. Cordery is sitting at the feet of our Savior (maybe he's somewhere near my Mom) basking in the joy, I'm sure, of hearing, "Well done my good and faithful servant."

You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.

Be blessed,
