“ My Brother as I sit here and read this obit I think how unfair it is that I didn't get to say goodbye. You're with the Lord now so, as we say in the Masonic order "Bubb" FARWELL, FAREWELL, FAREWELL, until we meet again. Love you Brother!

“ Wherever you may chance to be; wherever you may roam: far away in foreign lands or just at Home, Sweet Home; It always gives you pleasure, it makes your heart strings hum just to hear the words of cheer - "I see you've traveled some." When you get the brother's greeting and he takes you by the hand, it thrills you with a feeling you cannot understand. You feel that bond of brotherhood; that tie that's sure to come when you hear him say in a friendly way, "I see you've traveled some." And if you are a stranger in a strange land, all alone If fate has left you stranded, dead broke and far from home, if a stranger stops and takes your hand, it thrills you - makes you numb, when he says with a grip of fellowship, "I see you've traveled some." And when your final summons comes to take a last long trip. Adorned with Lambskin Apron white and gems of fellowship. The Tiler at the Golden Gate with square and rule and plumb will size up your deeds and say "Walk in, I see you've traveled some “ Bubba is perhaps the greatest athlete to come out of Lebanon. As a child growing up, I was one of many who looked up to and respected Bubba, not just for his athletic ability, but for the way he handled himself and treated others. He was kind and gentle and always had a big smile on his face. May he rest in peace. May god be with the family at this most difficult time.

“ I was in the 4th and 5th grade at St. A when I saw Bubba playing basketball. To us, he was like how kids today admire professional players. The gym was small and everyone had a courtside seat. When the team came onto the court we would be outside the locker room giving low fives to all the players. Just touching Bubba would be like a young kid today touching LeBron James or whoever there hero is. Bubba, Thanks for all the Great memories. God bless you and your family.

“ Bubba was great exciting basketball player at St A. I was privileged to know him and coach him. He made me and St A very happy by his tremendous ability to score and play the game, helping St A win many games and tournament. He was a good generous and kind human being whom I was fortunate to be with at St A for a few years. My thoughts are with him and his family. Coach Mr. T
