“ I feel deeply for those who have lost a parent. Your lives will be forever changed. However that parent is never gone, and you will find that their influence on your lives will be a daily occurrence. My prayers go out to you may your sorrows be met by the everlasting spirit given to your dad by our creator, and you be given the strength needed to endure this absence of his bodily representation in your lives.

“ Going to miss my Heavenly Brother as we had plans to meet here with the Fellas later this year. George was a good and professionally sound man who loved his Family (one time he reel off everyone's name in his family tree). I enjoyed the times we had either at luncheons or the get togethers and he will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are out to the Lockett Family. God Bless you ALL.

“ For the past forty years George has been a friend, brother and mentor to me and my family. He and his family took us in to be a part of their own family and we shall never forget the love and hospitality that was always shown to us. Our hearts are heavy because we are not able to be with the family this week, but please know that we love each of you and we will miss George very much.

“ I enjoyed my time with Mr. Lockett. He always had a positive spin on life. He was a great man to talk to about life in general. He loved to eat those ripe bananas that were basically brown. I don't know how he did that. LOL Since he retired from work he was missed. To his family he lived a great life and always remember he is with you in spirit. Remember the good and let his laughter and smile live through you. God Bless.

“ It is my honor and privilege to have been in the company of such an esteemed and regarded man when working at DISA. Through stories shared by mutual friends and in casual conversation I can say with confidence that his service left a positive mark on many communities. I would humbly ask the Lockett family to accept my prayers and deepest sympathies for the loss.

“ My most heart-felt condolences to the Lockett family for your loss. As a former DISA co-worker, George Lockett was a true professional, helpful, caring, considerate, understanding and dependable. Throughout my tenure at DISA, whenever I needed assistance from George, he came through and subliminally a friendship grew. During many of our job related telephone calls, often we ended up talking about personal matters, life topics and future plans. As the years passed, our friendship grew, which often included talks about retirement and life after DISA. I wished George bon voyage when he retired, and our eventual re-connection via Facebook, which allowed us to continue maintaining contact with each other until his passing. I will always have a smile on my face when I think of George...because he always had a positive outlook regardless! Rest in Peace my friend!
