“ There is a reason God puts someone in your path. I am so glad to have crossed paths with such a wonderful loving person who always greeted with a smile. She had enough love to share not only for her family but to others who she treated like family. Sincere thoughts and prayers are with the family as Georgetta steps into another light.

“ Georgetta was my cousin and was a wonderful person, She was always smiling and wanting to know how I was doing and giving me advice. My children grew up with her children and I am grateful for those days. We did not see each other all the time, but the moments we did counted. She will truly be missed.

“ Georgetta! Seems like I was just playing cards with you at the July 4th family gathering, acting goofy as always!! Even though me and Terrie was winning lol, you still laughed at me playing Casino...because I'm horrible at it, even though you all taught me a couple times lol. I'm gonna miss you cousin! Glad I snapped that picture with you at James wedding!! You'll shine bright in Heaven! God needed you more then we do here. Please tell the others I said we miss them too!! Granny, Barbara, Victoria, Hinkle, & Porter. I love you cuz!! Until we meet again!!
