“ Dear Mr. Edwards, Annette and Family, I will be forever grateful for being welcomed into your home, and being able to spend time with you. Your mother truly made sure that your home was a place of peace, and nurturing. Losing a parent is never easy, but we are comforted when we remember how much of themselves they have instilled in us. May you be comforted by her spirit as it lives in you all. I will be praying for you.

“ The Edwards Family, I remember Mrs. Edwards as the Head Librarian in Central High School, as a student I worked under Mrs. Edwards in the library, she was always willing to share her knowledge and I will always cherish the memories. We always joked that we could be related because we (at that time) shared the same last name. Mrs. Edwards was always a very sweet and knowledgeable lady. Edwards family please know my prayer for your family is that of solace and Godspeed.

“ To the Edwards Family,As a student at Central High School, I worked under Mrs. Edwards in the library she was extremely knowledgeable of all the systems in the library and always willing to share her knowledge. We always joked that we could be related since my maiden name was Coleman. I will cherish the experiences and memories from this very pleasant, sweet lady. My prayer of solace is for your family.
