“ Aye no words can explain the love he shared. To know him was to love him....

Papa Pic

*You called me Speedy, but you was quick on your feet,
A wicked sense of humor, that could charm the street.
Dangerous, some might say, with a reputation bold,
But to us, you were loving, with a heart of gold.*

*You were a pretty gangster, with a style all your own,
A serious demeanor, that commanded respect, back home.
But beneath the tough exterior, beat a heart of love,

*Your legacy lives on, through memories we hold tight,
Of your laughter, your jokes, and your shining light.
You may be gone, but your impact remains,
A loving Papa Pic, who'll forever sustain.*

*Rest in peace, Wicked, aka Papa Pic, you'll be deeply missed,
But your memory will live on, forever n ever! Love always Dre' aka
SPEEDY!*

Gregroy and I were students in Mrs. James Kindergarten class at old Booker T. Washington Elementary School in Smoketown. A valued friend through the years though we didn't see one another as much as we should have. My sincerest condolences to the family and those who survive.
