“ I just found out of Greg's passing and I am deeply saddened. We grew up together at McDonalds and he was my best friend. Some of my best memories ever were spent with Greg. I love him like a brother and I miss him terribly. Greg, you are forever in my heart.

“ Greg, I often think of the times you and I shared together in mom and dads kitchen. I thoroughly enjoyed preparing those great meals with you and the candid conversations we had. I will forever remember Our trips "down desert alley". LOL. You were always such a joy to be around. I love you, brother. Your smile and laughter will truly be missed!

“ Greg...I will miss you. Thanks so much for your giving spirit. You added to my life in so many ways but what I most appreciated was your instruction on home decorating and cooking. It was a delight when you graced your buttermilk pies and stuffed bell peppers! My thoughts and prayers go out to the family who I love to see standing together like a ROCK in the time of storm. Be Blessed.

“ To Tara and the Wilson family, my memories of Greg are from a time long ago, high school. Greg was to me a very gentle soul who always had a smile on his face. That's what I will remember about him. May God grant you peace and great memories. May God continue to cover you all with his love and grace.

“ To everyone in the Wilson family, I was saddened to hear about the passing of Gregory. It made me reflect back to greater times when our families were growing up together at WCSBC. I remember those glorious Easter Sundays when the Wilson family would put their finest attire on for Resurrection Sunday. Little did we know learning about God as children that would help us for times like these. Gregory can walk around Heaven all day! Take care in knowing God cares for all of you. May your fondest memories of Greg carry you through the difficult days ahead.

“ I am wondering if this is the Greg Wilson (& sister Tara) who worked at McDonald's on Westport Road back in the early '80's; sure was sorry to see this in the CJ yesterday. I am so sad for your loss for a life ended too soon. I have many happy memories of our days at McDonald's and Greg sure was a happy, funny guy!

“ Greg cooked for me many times over the past year. He told me how he loved cooking--the order and calm it brought him. It was more than just a trade or skill for him--it was his way to help others, and he loved doing that. He was so talented but also modest and matter-of-fact about his abilities--a dignified, humble, man who I look up to in many ways. He had a sharp mind and a quick sense of humor that could make me and others laugh so easily. I admire that sense of humor, as well as his tremendous courage. He is going to be missed by so many people.
