“ To my extended family, I send the sincerest condolences. Words can't express the sense of loss being experienced. Mama Henrietta was a great influence to all she met. Her love of family was contagious. All of her children, I include myself in that large number, will miss her soft words of wisdom, her steely eyes of reprimand, and her guiding hand of experience.

“ Hazel and Henrietta

Please know we are praying for you and your family. We Loved "Big Mama" We really had some good times with her while she was here in Louisville. She will truly be missed. She lived a Beautiful Blessed life and was such an inspiration to all she came in contact with. She is now resting peacefully in the arms of our Lord. We Love You
