

Herman Thompson

July 28, 2014

Herman Thompson, 77, passed away peacefully on Monday afternoon, July 28, 2014.

He was a member of Brown Memorial CME Church, a graduate of Central High School Class of 1955, and a United States Navy Veteran.

Mr. Thompson was a successful entrepreneur in the African-American community. He was co-owner of Captain's Closet Men's Store and owner of the Dairy Snack- Mr. Thompson's Barbeque, both at the corner of 15th and Broadway.

He is survived by his loving wife of 33 years, Dianne; children, Grego, Faye, and Tiffany; siblings, Ronald, Gary, Brenda, Aileen, and Shelia; 4 grandchildren.

Visitation with his family will be 4pm – 6pm Sunday August 3, 2014 at his church, 809 W. Chestnut St. with a memorial service to follow at 6pm.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be directed towards the Lincoln Foundation, Whitney M. Young Scholarship Program, Herman Thompson Scholarship Fund; 200 W. Broadway, Suite 500, Louisville, KY. 40202

Tribute Wall

TO

“ Deepest sympathy, Herman was a respected member of the Southeast YMCA and his spirit will live on with all of us especially those who valued his friendship. We hope memories of your life together will comfort you in this difficult time

Tom - August 06, 2014 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ Although you are gone, your light will shine forever. We won't forget you.

Brenda and Darnell Crenshaw - August 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM