“ To the Family of Iris I knew her from Jewish Hospital where we both worked. Ms Iris was the light for all at Jewish she took pride in her work and was always given praise special mention. Everyone asked for Ms Iris to clean their office and she kept the lobby at Jewish and Frazier shinning and that beautiful voice would be a bright spot everyday to come to work to hear her singing. I will always remember her my last few weeks before I retired as she asked me everyday "when is your last day" on my last day she said "say it ain't so" (lol). RIP Ms Iris I can hear your voice singing in heaven.
