“ I never saw her face in person, but I received several pictures from her through her grandchildren. This beautiful woman was a Christian believer in the Lord, and had a unconditional love for her family. My Great-Aunt Ivy (My Grandfather's baby sister)will be missed forever in my heart!

“ I didn't know you Ms. Craycroft by seeing or meeting you in person but by just hearing your sweet voice I knew you were a beautiful person with a beautiful spirit that I now know affectionately as "Aunt Ivy"... you have gone to meet the King! Rest easy... Aunt Ivy. Love and Condolences to my friend Beverly Lewis and the entire family.

“ Ivy and I have been friends since we were 8 years old. She is the only person left who can remember what I remember about the old days of Walnut street. My heart is heavy as it is hard to lose your best friend of a virtual lifetime. God has her under his protection and care now. She is at peace. May God comfort the family during this time of loss. With loving memories and fondness, Elder William TorainCleveland, Ohio
