“ Remember Jalen as a baby. Always sweet and quiet. As he grew older, saw him grow into an active and handsome young man. He and my daughter Imani were classmates and she would talk about the funny things he would do in class. Remember this past Summer at Manual during Pajama Day talking to him about the blanket he was wrapped him. We laughed. Our hearts our numb for the loss. Prayers with the parents who we know loved him very much and was very active in his life.

“ Jalen was a wonderful young man, we never really spoke, but when we did he was always in good spirits. I can't express how sorry I am, I lost my mother 2 months ago and I'm still struggling with that. But what I've had to remember is that as of today, God kept me for 17 years. And he will continue to keep me, and he will keep all of you, take your pain and sorries to God and he will help you each day.

Ricky Reynolds - January 21, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“ Since we can no longer hold him within our sights, let's hold him that much stronger within our hearts...sharing thoughts and prayers to all within Jalen's family and his extended family at Manual...

Kelly Ranvier Durham - January 21, 2016 at 12:00 AM

“ I met Jalen when I became a football trainer at Manual. He used to throw the ball with us and shake his head when we didn't catch it. I always knew he was coming down the hall when I heard music blasting and we would yell "Oh my J.A.J" at him and he'd mock us and keep going. I'll truly miss him. Rest easy, Jay.

“ I remember at football games we would always talk on the sidelines when he wasn't in the game. We would goof off and always talk about how the boys were about to get "another one" (dj Khaled voice). Jalen was such a wonderful, funny, friendly person. It sucks to see the world loose somebody as special as him. I would just like to think his parents for allowing somebody as amazing as him in our lives.
