“ To the Family, My wife and I send our heartfelt condolences for the loss of a dear friend and brother. I've knew Jim for almost 40 years, and when I think of him, I think of his impeccable reputation, and his remarkable mannerisms. I met Jim through his father who I worked with me at International Harvester, and he was recommended to list my house. When we met our personalities and values were compatible and out of that grew an enduring friendship, I will miss him greatly. I discovered he was gone after the fact, and it was devastating because we would have been there. I will have an everlasting appreciation for his thoughtfulness, and kindnesses to my wife and me. May God bless his family and loved ones. You continue to be in our prayers. Eternally yours, Louis and Daisy Jennings

“ I am just seeing the obituary for James and was so, so sorry to hear that news. He was always nice and very helpful to my mother - bringing her newspaper to her door from the box at the end of her driveway. She was thankful for that kindness, among other things. After her passing, he kept an eye on her house during his early morning walks and would message me that all was well. My sincerest condolences to his family.

“ When James was in real estate back in the 1980's, I had the pleasure of meeting him, a wonderful and kind and soft spoken gentleman he was. He had a good sense of humor too and he taught me important things to look for when doing real estate transactions.
His kindness, Im sure will be missed by all.
Family, may you find peace with yourselves on earth, such as he has found in his rest.
