

James G. Dillon (SOUTHEAST)

January 1, 1950 - November 10, 2023

James G. Dillon was born on January 1, 1950, to the union of the late James B. Dillon, Jr. and Irma Jean Dillon. Gregory was the oldest of 8 children. Gregory knew the Lord and was baptized at an early age at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky.

Gregory, "Nut Ball" as he was called, was a happy soul and would have you laughing every time you were around him. He loved dancing and playing basketball with his brothers and friends. He was an avid UofL fan and loved red and black. But his greatest loves were his FAMILY and singing for the Lord. His favorite songs were "I Gotta Clean Up What I messed Up" and "Jesus Will Make It All Right". His favorite sayings were "I'm gonna ball til I fall" and "I won't stop 'til I drop".

Gregory is preceded in death by his father, James B. Dillon, Jr.; brother, Darrell Dillon; great-niece, Angelina Patrick.

He will be lovingly remembered by his daughters, Renean L. Fant (Michael), Keisha Robinson; mother, Irma Jean Dillon; siblings, Frederick (Vickie) Dillon, Antonio Dillon, Shirley (Bill) Johnson, Yolonda Dillon, LaTonya (Hot Moma) Shelton, Celita (Karen) Dillon, sister niece, Patricia (Chris) Hurt. 13 grandkids and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, cousins, friends and all the people he touched along his path.

Memorial Service: 12pm, Wednesday, November 15, 2023 at A.D. Porter & Sons Southeast, 4501 Bardstown Rd.
