

James E. Ferguson (SOUTHEAST)

November 13, 1948 - September 13, 2025

James E. Ferguson, 76, passed away Saturday, September 13, 2025. He is survived by his siblings, Rev. William R. Lash, Sr. (Carolyn), Yvonne L. Jones, Mary E. Lash, Regina L. Moore (David), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins.

Visitation: 10am-12pm Saturday, September 27, 2025 at A.D. Porter & Sons Southeast, 4501 Bardstown Rd., funeral service to follow at 12 noon.

Previous Events

Visitation

SEP 27. 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

A. D. Porter and Sons Funeral Home - Southeast
4501 Bardstown Road
Louisville, KY 40218
(502) 491-7885
a.d.portersoutheast@gmail.com
<https://adporters.com/>

Funeral Service

SEP 27. 12:00 PM (ET)

A. D. Porter and Sons Funeral Home - Southeast
4501 Bardstown Road
Louisville, KY 40218
(502) 491-7885
a.d.portersoutheast@gmail.com
<https://adporters.com/>

Tribute Wall

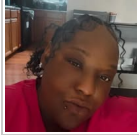

“ *My Condolences and Prayers for
The Ferguson Family and Friends*

Marva L.Valentine - September 28, 2025 at 07:49 AM

AM

“ One thang for certain and 2 for sure he was gonna go smoke with or without you, he'll change his clothes with or without you and he will tell you he can have a big red (almost got me a few times soon as I stepped on the floor he's sitting in that chair close to the elevator with this big smile and tiny eyes talking about is that you “ Marry”? I was either Marry or Brenda, lol . I'm like unk I'm Ann, aw that's right smiling at the same time he would reply steadily looking at my bags in my hand his next question would be “ Is that a big red in your bag? I would say how you know I got a big red in my bag? Let me just say this unk can spot whatever he wanted to in your bag with his tiny eyes w/o you even opening it. But this is the kicker right here he would say “ I sure wish I had a big red” trynna look sad at the same time. Them eyes will get you every time if you didn't know any better. Last but not least he knew what color car and truck I had and would ask me Ann is that your red car outside? And sure enough it was. Regina and I have the exact same color and truck and lord knows he knew when either I or Gina was in the building. Ann is that your truck or Gina's? Unk it's mine but Gina's on her way do you wanna go call her? And it was yeah with bright big/ tiny eyes and unk would sometimes/ most of the time forget he's supposed to be in his wheelchair and takeoff walking, you look up and he would be gone just a walking. I'm like unk you gonna get all us his trouble know you not supposed to be walking. Aw I ain't? He would say. Naw sit in this wc before Gina get up here is what I would tell him and he would sit immediately with that smile on his face. If he wasn't smiling or laughing best believe he wasn't feeling good and had not a problem telling you” whatever was on his mind “ But don't turn your back and expect for unk to be there when you turn back around because baby unk will be gone on down the hallway somewhere or on the elevator to go smoke minding his own business. Love and miss you Ann aka Marry or Brenda

Angela Maddox - September 26, 2025 at 08:54 PM

“ Mr. Ferguson (Unk) was one of my favorite residents he was notorious for getting me to take him out to smoke in between smoking times 🙋🏾👩... One day he was sitting in his favorite spot by the nurses station (so he can get all the scoop) I got off the elevator and he jumped and said come on Cindy! He was walking so fast that he forgot his walker 🦯... oh and such a ladies man but when any of us would say we love you he would just smile and say okay 🦯🦯.... Heather do you remember when he told you that you had a bird nest in your hair!! Pure comedy and love from this wonderful spirit! I will always have a special place in this heart for him!!!

Cynthia Samuel - September 25, 2025 at 09:51 AM

RM

Thank you Cynthia! 🦯🥹🦯🥹

Regina Moore - September 25, 2025 at 05:55 PM

RM

“ I miss my big brother's smile that would meet me at the elevator everyday. Sometimes everyone on his entire hall could hear him. "There's my baby", he would shout. His whole face would light up. He made my day! No matter what he was dealing with he fought through it. He was so funny, with such a quick wit for a comeback that would crack you up laughing. He sang with me and to me. He danced with me and for me. He was my protector all my life. The demons he fought in his head didn't keep him from being my big brother and loving me. I'd do anything for him to make him happy and keep him safe and well. But I had to let him go, I have no regrets. He's now at peace and it was my honor ensure that he was happy and felt nothing but love his last years of life. Rest easy big brother, I love you! 💔

Regina Moore - September 24, 2025 at 05:37 AM

VW

“ Hello everyone. I can't be at James (Fergie) home going because I have another funeral in Indianapolis to attend. My heartfelt condolences and prayers to his family. I loved me some Fergie. We had such a wonderful relationship. He was somewhat difficult to attend with but once we started telling one another that we were sister and brother. Each day we would tell one another that we loved each other. We cried when he left Hamilton Center. I appreciate Gina for keeping us in touch with one another. Love you James. ❤️❤️❤️

Vanessa Weddle - September 23, 2025 at 10:52 PM

HG

“ James was hands down one of my favorite residents to care for. I have been in the nursing field for 15 years and there is only a handful of previous patients that I will always remember. He sure left his mark on me. He had the most beautiful smile and I will forever remember him that way. He was always so funny. And the thing about James is, he wasn't even trying to be funny. He just had the best personality and could make anyone laugh at any given moment. One time while working, I was talking about a patient with the last name "McDonald" he popped his head up and his eyes got real big and with the MOST serious face he says "his first name is Ronald, I know him". Though we were not talking about the actual Ronald McDonald, James sure gave us a laugh in that moment. I will miss those laughs and that beautiful smile. May you rest in peace James. You have no idea how loved you really are.

Heather Gray - September 23, 2025 at 09:11 PM

RM

Oh my goodness Heather! Thank you for telling this one! It's hilarious! He did say the funniest things without even trying to be funny. 🤔😂🤔
😂🤔

Regina Moore - September 25, 2025 at 03:59 AM