“ Dear LaVon, May your tears wash away the sadness of loosing your father in the flesh. May those tears fill your heart with gladness of knowing how much you are blessed. May the years that have gone by come back on you to reflect, the strength and courage of the ROCK that truly represents all the joy and laughter and birth and pain, all the dancing and Love Unions your family has gained through the life of your father, James. Peace and Love, L'Tanya

“ What a JOY having James in our life. Finding out that he was my Uncle James Taylor's son was such a blessing not only to James but to our family especially my mother his Aunt Marie (Honey Hursey). When James came around she was so happy. When I saw James my heart skipped a beat because of the stark resemblance of my uncle. I am happy that James had the opportunity to find his "roots". We accepted him immediately without any hesitation. James made several trips to be with us on various occasions. His last trip was to memorialize my mom Honey in Illinois. The LOVE that he had for Honey I cannot put into words. That man loved his family also. He bragged on each of his kids and was so very proud. The way that he looked at his "Petie" his wife gave me chills. That is true love. We are grateful for his presence in our lives. We love and will miss James. RIH cousin.
