“ I just learned of Jimmy's passing. His family and ours were friends. Our parents came to Louisville at the same time and lived on the same street together for years. My sincere condolences to the Green family.

“ Jessica and Family:I was truly saddened to learn of James' sudden death. We started practicing law in Louisville around the same time. James and his associate the late Larry Beale, Esq. were fixtures in the old Hall of Justice who fought hard to protect the rights of the less fortunate. I was blessed to share a long conversation with James last fall at the doctor's office about how far we had come. It was an honor to know him. He will be missed.

“ Jim will be sorely missed! I've had the privilege of knowing him and his family personally and professionally for more than 30 years. They blessed me with caring for all of their children, all of whom he and Judy loved dearly. He provided a loving home and an enriching environment for all of their children. I know his family is devastated, however, I know they trust in The Lord and are comforted by our prayers. I speak for myself and my family, however, I know the Louisville community echoes our sentiments that Jim was a great man, whom we will miss greatly. With deepest sympathy, love and admiration, Dr. Beverly Gaines, my family, my associates and office staff!

“ Going to miss passing by at offering time and you not being in your usual spot on the front pew at St. Stephen. Also going to miss hearing you say, "I don't know about you but as for me. . ." You were a servant leader who served the Lord, our church and our community with love and dedication. Then in the wee hours of Mourn Day Thursday God called you home. Now you can walk around heaven all day. God bless the family and James, you rest in peace until that Great Getting Up Day."

“ To the Green Family:
My heart is heavy after hearing about the passing of Mr. Green. He and his first wife (Judith) were one of the first people I met when I moved here years ago and always embraced my family and provided well needed advice, counsel and prayer. You will be truly missed. Praying for Jessica and the rest of the family.
