“ Uncle James was an awesome Uncle. He was quite but he carried a huge stick...which I assume is why we called him stick-tight. He was a loving man and would be glad to give anyone of us the shirt off his back. He was a helping man. He beleived in giving and sharing. I will miss my uncle...I am glad I had a chance to sit with him, Vivian and my mom, Aunt Sarah, as we strolled down memory lane talking about all the good times that have past and are long gone. We sat and remembered our family members who had passed, Isabelle, Roady, Eugene, John, Tidda and the infamous Buster Mudd.... reflecting on their glorified goodness they left in our hearts. I am sure, him and aunt Roady are up there right now making up for lost time. Farewell Uncle James, you were a good man. I'm glad I was able to call you "My Uncle" Thanks for all you did for me and my family..... All the times you allowed us to use your home...as "our home away from home". Kenneth Dale Mudd
